Robert Williams is CEO of Diamant Entertainment Group, LLC. With over 30 years in the music and entertainment business, Robert is responsible for developing and executing disciplines strategies to continue the growth of the company across multiple platforms including film, television, music, live events and delivery systems.

Robert represents and manages the careers of a select group of entertainment industry professionals including Emmy Award winning filmmakers, actors, television and media personalities and music artists.

His clients have appeared in major motion pictures including The Avengers (Marvel Studios) and Taken 3 (20th Century Fox) as well as on the small screen including The Haves and Have Nots (Tyler Perry Studios) Survivors Remorse (Starz) and Being Mary Jane (BET). He is also the producer of the successful "Columbus Gospel" music series and was also the producer of the "It's Just Us Radio Show".

Robert's industry experience also includes that of Royalties and Licensing Manager for Top Tunes Records, one of the largest music resellers in the US where he was responsible for licensing, compliance and payment arrangements for a catalog of over 3000 songs. He negotiated non-statutory amounts directly with publishers such as Universal Music Group, Sony, Disney, Cherry Lane Music, Chrysalis and Irving Music, and music artists such as Bruce Spingsteen, Evanescence and Linkin Park.

As a former manager for almost a decade at Mills-James Productions, the largest media production company in Central Ohio, whose clients included some of the nation's biggest brands, Robert was personally responsible for brands such as Lbrands/Victoria's Secret, Wendy's, and Chase, just to name a few.
